DAY CURRENT TO BE ESTABLISHED

New Unit to be Purchased at Light Plant to Use in Case of Breakdown.

USELESS WASTE OF WATER

Must Cease or City Will Compel Patrons to Buy Meters at Extra Expense.

At the instigation of Mayor Cowing, the members of the city council met Wednesday night in the council chamber to consider the water shortage in the city and also to consider the installation of the new unit in the city light plant.

Superintendent A. T. Mahin reports that the water is lower in the reservoir at the present time than it was during the long drouth several months ago. There is no reason for this as the recent rains have been sufficient to supply enough water for the patrons. Supt Mahin advances the theory that many people let their hydrants run all night to keep them from freezing and in this manner waste a great amount of water. If this practice is not stopped, the water and light committee intend to compel all of the patrons to purchase meters at their own expense.

It is the intention of the council to install a new unit in the water and light plant, which practically means that a new engine and a new dynamo will be purchased. This will double the producing power of the plant and will enable the city to establish a day current, which will fill a long-felt want. The extra unit may also be used in the case of a break-down.

When the day current is fully under way the city will replace the temporary grants given the I. & C. traction company to furnish electric power with their own power.

GLOVE FACTORY WILL BE STARTED

Local Men Have Purchased Machines and Rented a Room For Manufacturing Purposes.

GOOD MEN BEHIND INDUSTRY

A new factory will be launched in Rushville soon and it comes without the usual cry about bonus and such things. True it will be a small, modest industry at the beginning, but those behind it are men who are capable of doing things and who entertain hope that it will become a thriving enterprise.

The new firm will be known as the Rushville Glove Company and they will manufacture a line of canton gloves and mittens which will be sold to the retail trade by traveling men. The plant will be located in the front corner room of the half-basement in the Republican building, on the corner of Perkins and Second streets, and will be in operation in about three weeks.

Six power machines will be installed at the start and from six to eight employes will find work in the new industry. A. B. Irvin, cashier of the Farmers bank, is president of the new concern; Charles Caldwell, vice president and Theodore Heeb, secretary and treasurer.

A banker, who is a grandnephew of Mendelssohn, has just paid the record price of $20,000 for a Stradivarius violincello.

KEELEY CURE SANITARIUM

May be Located at Morristown—Welcome Extended.

Says the Morristown Sun: Ike Addison and Bert Scofield of Knightstown were here this week with a view of locating here with a Keely cure sanitarium. This certainly would be a beautiful town to locate the institution as well as a quiet and desirable location.

ED HANCOCK MAY LOSE EYESIGHT

Former Editor of Rushville Republican Sorely Affected With Weak Optic.

IS CONFINED IN A HOSPITAL

The numerous Rushville friends of Ed Hancock, editor of the Brookville American, will regret to learn that he is confined in a Cincinnati hospital where he was forced to go to receive treatment for an injured eye. The sight of the eye is endangered, but it is thought it will be saved. Mr. Hancock was editor of the Rushville Republican several years ago when the daily was first launched.

REPUBLICANS WILL BE KIND BUT FIRM

Gently and Artistically They Will Shear Frank Hall of Power.

PLANS OF STATE SENATORS

That Frank J. Hall, Lieutenant-Governor-elect, shall be shorn of most of the powers of a presiding officer when he wields the gavel in the next Senate was the sentiment among Republican members of the Senate, who met this afternoon at the State House, said Thursday's Indianapolis News.

There was a general feeling, however, that the shearing should be done in an artistic way and in such a manner as would be as nearly inoffensive to the Democrats as possible. For example, it was suggested by some that while the Republican majority in the Senate should control the chairmanship of Senate committees and should appoint a majority of the members of each committee, Mr. Hall might be permitted to make recommendations as to the appointment of minority members of the committees.

WHO ARE THEY?

The members of the Masonic order at Hope will erect a new lodge building soon. The contract was awarded to George H. Cook of that place on Tuesday, his bid being even $10,000. Other bidders according to the Columbus Republican were: Kline, Edinburg, $15,830; Coddle, Rushville, $13,235.95; Schnore, Shelbyville, $12,266; Oberlies, Shelbyville, $12,796; Dunlap & Co., Columbus, $12,250; W. H. Isgrigg, Greensburg, $13,889.

COMPLAINT FOR EJECTMENT.

John P. Ertel filed suit in Rush circuit court today against John Chapman for $15 damages and for ejectment from premises.

CHURCH PLANS A BIG REVIVAL

Evangelist Yeuell of Washington, D. C., Coming For a Series of Meetings.

TO BE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Great Spiritual Awakening is Anticipated as Evangelist is a Powerful One.

The Main Street Christian church is preparing for a series of big revival meetings to be held in the month of January. The services will be in charge of Evangelist Yeuell of Washington D. C. assisted by a song leader and soloist.

The church has been planning for this meeting for many months and is anticipating a great spiritual awakening. Evangelist Yeuell is one of the most prominent of the younger men leading evangelistic forces in America today and is classed with such men as "Billy" Sunday, Charles Reighn Seoville, J. Wilbur Chapman and Gipsy Smith as a speaker and revivalist of power. Rev. R. W. Aberley says an unusual treat is in store for the people in Rushville in the opportunity to attend a series of meetings conducted by a man like Herbert Yeuell and predicts a great moral uplift to the whole city and county. The special services will begin January 3rd.

HAS ADDED A NEW ONE TO HIS STABLE

Harrie Jones Has Taken the Green Trotter, Markley C, to Train During Winter.

HAS A FAST MILE TRACK

Harrie Jones of Rushville, Ind., has added to his stable the green trotter, Markley C., by Red Bell, 2:11 $\frac{1}{4}$; dam by Coastman, 2:08 $\frac{3}{4}$, says the Western Horseman. This horse trotted a trial last summer in 2:14 over a half-mile track.

Mr. Jones is forming his stable for 1909 and solicits patronage. He has marked seventeen horses from 2:05 $\frac{1}{4}$ to 2:10 $\frac{1}{4}$. He trains over one of the best and earliest mile tracks and has splendid stable accommodations for his horses.

PEDLARS PACK TO BE OPENED

At the Home of Mrs. Bert Trabue Tuesday Afternoon and Evening.

The ladies of the United Presbyterian church will open "Pedlar's packs" at the home of Mrs. Bert Trabue, 719 North Morgan street, Tuesday afternoon and evening, December 15th. These packs will contain articles both useful and ornamental which they will sell at very reasonable prices. A general invitation is extended.

FIRST PAIR OF BOOTS.

Alec Williams, the mayor of Jersey City, says he wants to make a public apology for not dancing Monday evening at the Old Fiddlers contest, and says he is troubled with an ingrown toe nail caused by wearing a fresh pair of boots.

BIG SKIN GAME RAISES STINK

We Can Always Tell Winter is Here When Hide Stench Comes.

ONEAL BROTHERS TO BLAME

We Would Rather "Hide the Smell Than Smell the Hide"—Complaint is Raised.

Whether it turns real cold or not you can always tell it is the winter season when your nostrils are filled by day and by night by that awful down-town stench which rolls up in great waves from the hide yards kept by Oneal Bros. in South Main street. This is the open season for skins and some of them do not have the odor of roses about them. Take the festive skunk, for instance. While their hides are considered of some value on the market, they cause more trouble to those who have a sensitive smelling apparatus than rag weed does in the glorious hay fever time. Few of us but what would rather "hide the smell than smell the hide" and while it is impossible to declare the industry a nuisance the next best thing we can do is to buy sponges and tie them over our noses when the clouds hang low. And then, the Oneal boys are such good fellows that we dislike to make a "holler."

The local firm of hide buyers are the biggest in this part of Indiana and handle thousands of pelts every fall. Many of these they buy of trappers who work along the streams and in the fields of Rush county, but in addition, they buy several of the adjoining counties. From now on until Old Sol gets busy with his heat plant in the spring, the Oneal Bros. will be found the leading "skin" dealers in the city.

WILL DECORATE CHURCH INTERIOR

Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church are Endeavoring to Raise $1000 for That Purpose.

TO ADD BAZAAR PROCEEDS.

The bazaar, given by the members of the Ladies' Aid Society in the basement of the Main Street Christian church, attracted a large crowd last night. It would have been hard to estimate the crowd which would have been in attendance had the weather been agreeable.

The ladies managing the dairy lunch soon sold out and a great amount of the stock of goods in the various booths was disposed of. Some of the articles to be found in the five different booths are dolls, home-made candies, doll clothes, fancy aprons, eatables of all kinds and descriptions in the country store, and fancy work.

A local orchestra, under the direction of Harry Lucas, furnished the music. The bazaar will be continued tonight.

The ladies of the Aid Society are endeavoring to raise $1000 to decorate the interior of the Main Street Christian church. The proceeds from the bazaar will be added to that fund.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Saturday. Cooler Saturday.

FAST BUNCH ORGANIZED

Local Five Will Play Gwynneville in Graham Building Tonight.

The Rushville high school basket ball team will play the Gwynneville team this evening in the gymnasium in the Graham building. The local five is a fast one and a good game is expected.

The following is the line-up: Gunning and Mauzy, forwards; Williams, center, and Heeb and Buell, guards. The contest begins promptly at 7:30 o'clock and an admission fee of 15 cents will be charged.

DID JOHN TRIBBEY SCOURGE HIMSELF?

Greensburg Newspaper "Playfully" Infers he Must Have Whipped Himself.

A TRIBUTE TO THE LAWYERS

This is the way the Greensburg Review sums up the admirable defense put up by the attorneys for the accused whitecaps:

"After reading the evidence and hearing the verdict in the whitecapping cases on trial at Rushville last week one is forced to the conclusion that John Tribbey, the victim, deliberately got out of bed at the dead hour of midnight, went out in the yard, tied himself to a tree, beat himself unmercifully with a ball bat wrapped with barbed wire and then administered to himself a first class coat of tar and feathers. And that those charged with the crime of beating him were all at home in bed at the time he whipped himself."

FORMER PRESIDENT DIED IN FLORIDA

Father of A. B. Irvin and Mrs. D. H. Dean Succumbed at a Ripe Old Age.

WAS AN EARLY SETTLER HERE

Newton Irvin, an old resident of this county, died at Lake Helen, Florida, December 6, of heart disease. He was past eighty-one years of age and was one of the early settlers of Washington township, on the farm where Ed Aikens now lives, just south of Raleigh. Burial occurred at Lake Helen. Deceased was the father of A. B. Irvin and Mrs. D. H. Dean of this city and Albert Irvin of Colon, Panama.

INSPECTING LODGES.

Greensburg Review: Col. Ed H. Wolfe of Rushville, the inspector of subordinate lodges of Masons, acting for the Grand Jurisdiction of Indiana, was here today on his way to Westport and will officially inspect Westport lodge F. & A. M. tonight.

STILL USING OXEN.

Greensburg Review: An ox team—the first seen here in many a day—appeared on the streets today, and strange to say, horses that are not afraid of the electric cars or autos, shied at it. The team was hauling material for George Little's building

HOME MISSION SOCIETY RALLY

Of White Water Presbytery Was in Session Yesterday at First Presbyterian Church.

NEW PLAN WAS ADOPTED

Successful Meeting Closed Last Night With an Address by Dr. John Dickson of New York.

The Home Mission Conference of the White Water Presbytery was held yesterday at the First Presbyterian church in this city. Delegates and visitors from the various congregations throughout the Presbytery were in attendance.

The opening address was made in the morning by Rev. Thomas J. Graham of Richmond. Dr. Dickson of New York City followed in the afternoon with a lecture. The program was carried out as planned and was a very interesting one to those who are interested in home missions.

Heretofore each district or Presbytery carried on its work according to the Indiana plan but yesterday it was decided to enlarge the scope and cover a larger field. From now on the policy will be not only to look after the work in their own Presbytery, but to co-operate with others in the United States.

The public gathering last night was addressed by Dr. John Dickson of New York City secretary of the Presbyterian Home Mission Society. Dr. Dickson is one of much prominence in church circles and is an eloquent and forceful speaker.

Dr. Dickson's address is said to have been one of the finest ever heard in the city. His theme was "The Needs and Condition of the Country."

Here's Where the Fun Comes In

She is a club woman with a sense of humor, but the other day when she decided to attend a federation session in another town she had some misgivings. She told her husband that she was possessed of a premonition of evil and cautioned him to be especially careful of the children. He merely laughed and said that he guessed they would be all right; then remarked jocosely:

"If you get worried, you might telegraph."

In the evening of her second day away she did worry and sent this telegram to her husband:

"How are the children?"

The messenger boy came with the dispatch just as the man was about to retire. He read it, smiled and then penned this answer:

"They're all right. Why?" "I guess that will hold her for a while," he said to himself, and then he went to bed.

He felt so good over what he considered to be the shrewdness of his reply that he laughed to himself, forgetting for the time being the old adage: "He laughs best who laughs last."

It was three o'clock in the morning when he was aroused by the violent ringing of his doorbell. Slipping into bathrobe and slippers, he went to the door and admitted a young Mercury, who handed out a yellow envelope. It was torn open quickly, read, and then the husband kicked himself back to bed as a recollection of his question in his message to his wife impressed itself upon his sleepy consciousness. Her reply was in one word:

"Because."

There will be an entertainment at Moscow Friday night Dec. 25 by the pupils of the 7th and 8th grade.

The new school house at Moscow is in a very unsafe condition. It has been on fire two or three times this week. It is thought by many that the house will burn down on the first real cold day or whenever a very hot fire is built in the furnace. We think the State Board of Health would condemn the building and close it at once was it to be inspected. There probably has never been a day since the house was built that it would come up to the rules of the State Board of Health. The plan of the building is faulty. It is only a question of a short time until there will be something doing at the Moscow school. The janitor has a barrel of water near the furnace ready to quench a fire.

SAME OLD TALK ABOUT STORM

A regular storm period extends from the 6th to the 10th, having its center on the 8th. General and severe winter storms will visit most parts of the country between the 7th and 11th and move eastward across the country, bringing general blizzards and sleet and snow of all central and northern sections.

A reactionary storm period will be central on the 13th, 14th and 15th. Wintry gales and many driving, violent snow storms must be counted on even in central and southern parts of sea and land. A regular storm period covers the 17th to the 22nd. About the 17th, it will turn warmer in the west, and storms of rain and snow will appear. During the 18th to 21st these storms will appear in regular order from west to east across the country. Very severe and general cold wave will spread southward over the sea and land, beginning in our own northwest about the 24th, reaching for southward progressively from about the 25th to the 29th.

A regular storm period is central on hte 31st, beginning on the 29th and extending into January. Cloudiness, change of warmer and return of rain and snow may be expected in western parts of the country on the 30th and 30st.

AHA! THEY DID NOT GUESS THE WORD

Two Dollars is Hung on the Wire For First Correct Guess Tomorrow.

Tomorrow will be the Missing Word editor's busy day again for no one guessed the missing word last night. But one word was omitted, the word "best" in Wagoner's ad, as "best homes." True it was a little difficult, but that's where the fun comes in. Now get busy on the contest for tonight. The whitecapping cases are over and you have plenty of time to read. Two dollars will be awarded for the first correct answer found on the pile tomorrow. Might as well rack your brain a bit and pick up a little easy Xmas money; don't wait to look in your stocking, but look into the ads now.

AMUSEMENTS. Fine crowds were in attendance at each of the several shows at the Vaudet last night. Since installing the "talking pictures" extra good crowds have been in attendance, as the shows of late have been "so good" that the Vaudet's patronage cannot resist seeing a show sometime during the evening—despite inclement weather or other opposing forces which arise. Tonight there will be a complete change of program as usual.

A great many theatergoers of today, attend the theater to enjoy a good laugh, they don't wonder about the cause and effects, method, art or anything else, but an evening of side-splitting laughter of wholesome entertainment for the father, mother, sister and brother and has never anyone been disappointed by "A Yankee Doodle Girl," which will be presented at the Grand theater on Tuesday night, December 15, by a company of capable players.

There will be a complete change of program tonight at the Grand theater. The film will be "A Fisherman's Rival" and a new song "When" will be sung by Miss Brown.

MINISTER EXTRAORDINARY

John Montgomery of This City, Conducting a Big Revival.

The revival meeting which has been in progress at the East Greenfield Heavenly Recruit church, says the Greenfield Reporter, is growing in interest under the leadership of Rev. J. M. Montgomery of Rushville, who is assisting the pastor, Rev. John Z. Lewis. There have been three conversions and several others are under conviction.

A number of patrons of the Greensburg division of the I. & C. have petitioned the Railroad Commission to have the schedule changed. They would have a local car substituted for the dispatch in the evening which they declare does not even hesitate at the country towns.

HAS ADDED A NEW PICTURE

To His Valuable Collection in the Sheriff's Office.

Jabez Smith has added another celebrated picture to his valuable collection in the sheriff's office. After the parade on the day of the big Republican rally in this city, the members of the Old Soldiers' Watson club, 79 in number, collected on the north steps of the court house and had their pictures taken. Mr. Smith prizes this more than any other one of the numerous groups which are hung upon the wall. The sheriff's office has practically been converted into an art gallery.

The Younger Set

By ROBERT W. CHAMBERS,
Author of "The Fighting Chance," Etc.

Copyright, 1907, by Robert W. Chambers

"Thank you for staying," she said quite happily. "Do you think me interesting to real men, like you and Boots?" she asked.

"Yes," he said deliberately. "I do. I don't know how interesting, because I never quite realized how—how you had matured. That was my stupidity."

"Captain Selwyn," in confused triumph, "you never gave me a chance—I mean, you always were nice in—in the same way you are to Drina. I liked it—don't, please, misunderstand—only I knew there was something else to me—something more nearly your own age. It was jolly to know you were really fond of me, but youthful sisters grow faster than you imagine. And now, when you come, I shall venture to believe it is not wholly to do me a kindness—but a little—to do yourself one too. Is that not the basis of friendship?"

"Yes."
"Community and equality of interests, isn't it?"

"Yes."
"And—in which—the charity of superior experience and the inattention of intellectual preoccupation and the amused concession to ignorance must steadily, if gradually, disappear? Is that it too?"

Astonishment and chagrin at his misconception of her gave place to outright laughter at his own expense.

"Where on earth did you—I mean that I am quite overwhelmed under your cutting indictment of me. Old duffers of my age?"

"Don't say that," she said. "That is pleading guilty to the indictment and reverting to the old footing. I shall not permit you to go back."

"I don't want to, Eileen."

"I am wondering," she said airily, "about that 'Eileen.' I'm not sure but that easy and fluent 'Eileen' is part of the indictment. What do you call Gladys Orchil, for example?"

"What do I care what I call anybody?" he retorted, laughing.

Their light hearted laughter mingled delightfully—fresh, free, uncontrolled, peal after peal. She sat huddled up like a schoolgirl, lovely head thrown back, her white hands clasping her knees; he, both feet squarely on the floor, leaned forward, his laughter echoing hers.

"What nonsense! What blessed nonsense you and I are talking!" she said, "but it has made me quite happy. Now you may go to your club."

"I don't want to."

"Oh, but you must"—she was now dismissing him—"because, although I am convalescent, I am a little tired, and Nina's maid is waiting to tuck me in."

"So you send me away?"

"Send you?" She hesitated, delightfully confused in the reversal of roles—not quite convinced of this new power which of itself had seemed to invest her with authority over man.

"Yes," she said, "I must send you away." And her heart beat a little faster in her uncertainty as to his obedience, then leaped in triumph as he rose with a reluctance perfectly visible.

"Tomorrow," she said, "I am to drive for the first time. In the evening I may be permitted to go to the Grays' mid-Lent dance, but not to dance much. Will you be there? Didn't they ask you? I shall tell Suddy Gray what I think of him, I don't care whether it's for the younger set or not! Goodness me, aren't you as young as anybody? Well, then, so we won't see each other tomorrow. And the day after that—oh, I wish I had my engagement list. Never mind; I will telephone you when I'm to be at home—wherever I'm going to be. But it won't be anywhere in particular because it's Lent, of course. Good night, Captain Selwyn. You've been very sweet to me, and I've enjoyed every single instant."

Playing a siphon on a tall, thin glass.

When he had gone she rose, a trifle excited in the glow of abstract happiness, and walked erratically about, smiling to herself, touching and rearranging objects that caught her attention. Then an innocent instinct led her to the mirror, where she stood a moment looking back into the lovely reflected face with its disordered hair.

"After all," she said, "I'm not as aged as I pretended. I wonder if he is laughing at me now. But he was very, very nice to me."

Selwyn was playing the fizzing contents of a siphon upon the ice ingredients of a tall, thin glass which stood on a table in the Lenox club.

The governor's room being deserted except by himself and Mr. Lansing, he continued the animated explanation of his delay in arriving.

"So I stayed," he said to Boots, with an enthusiasm quite boyish, "and I had a perfectly bully time. She's just as clever as she can be, starting at moments. I never half appreciated her. She formerly appealed to me in a different way, a young girl knocking at the door of the world and no mother or father to open for her and show her the gimcracks and the freaks and the sideshows. Do you know Boots, that some day that girl is going to marry somebody and it worries me knowing men as I do, unless you should think of?"

"Great James," faltered Mr. Lansing, "are you turning into a schatschen? Are you planning to waddle through the world making matches for your friends? If you are I'm quitting you right here."

"It's only because you are the dearest man I happen to know," said Selwyn resentfully. "Probably she'd turn you down anyway. But—and he brightened up—"I dare say she'll choose the best to be had. It's a pity, though."

"What's a pity?"

"That a charming, intellectual, sensitive, innocent girl like that should be turned over to a plain lump of a man."

"When you've finished your eulogy on our sex," said Lansing, "I'll walk home with you."

As the two men entered their own door and started to ascend the stairs a door on the parlor floor opened, and their landlady appeared, enveloped in a soiled crimson kimono and a false front which had slipped sideways.

"There's the suitana," whispered Lansing, "and she's making sign language at you. Wigwag her, Phil. Oh, good evening, Mrs. Greeve! Did you wish to speak to me? Oh—to Captain Selwyn—of course!"

"If you please," said Mrs. Greeve ominously, so Lansing continued upward; Selwyn descended. Mrs. Greeve waved him into the icy parlor, where he presently found her straightening her "front" with work worn fingers.

"Captain Selwyn, I deemed it my duty to set up in order to inform you of certain specials doin's," she said haughtily.

"What 'doings?' he inquired.

"Mr. Erroll's, sir. Last night he evidently found difficulty with the stairs, and I seen him asleep on the parlor sofa when I come down to answer the milkman a-smokin' a cigar that wasn't lit, with his feet on the angelus."

"I'm very, very sorry, Mrs. Greeve," he said, "and so is Mr. Erroll. He and I had a little talk today, and I am sure that he will be more careful hereafter."

"There is cigar holes burned into the carpet," insisted Mrs. Greeve, "and a mercy we wasn't all insinuated in our beds, one window pane broken and the gas a blue an' whistlin' streak with the curtains blowin' into it an' a strange cat on to that satin dozydo, the proof being the repugnant perfume."

"All of which," said Selwyn, "Mr. Erroll will make every possible amends for. He is very young, Mrs. Greeve and very much ashamed, I am sure. So please don't make it too hard for him."

TO EXAMINE COUNTY BOOKS

Committee Makes Recommendation for Expert Accountants.

Newcastle, Ind., Dec. 11.—Expert accountants will in all probability be employed by the county commissioners to audit the books of Henry county. Men have been recommended for the work by the nonpartisan board appointed by the commissioners to formulate plans for the investigation.

The report of the nonpartisan committee is now before the commissioners, and it is expected that a contract will be entered into before the board closes its December meeting. The committee recommends that the experts be employed by the day, ten hours to constitute a day's work, and that the pay be $10 a day for each man employed. The contract, which awaits the signatures of the commissioners, is closely drawn in every way and protects the county in every phase. The committee recommends that the investigation extend back to 1891, covering the time of the fee and salary law, and include all of the county officers except the present incumbents.

It is estimated that a thorough job will require about $2,500, and as the county council only appropriated $1,000 for the work, the committee recommends that the council be called in session and arrangements made for more money.

Can You Beat It?

Logansport, Ind., Dec. 11.—John Skelly and Roy Grigsby, eighteen years old, engaged in a pistol duel, not with the purpose of killing or maiming each other, but to ascertain who was the better marksman. Instead of firing at inanimate targets, one proposed that they each fire at the other, and the one that could shoot nearest the other without hitting him would win. Armed with revolvers, the boys stood at ten paces, and fourteen shots rang out within the brief space of a few seconds. Aroused by the shooting people living nearby rushed forward, expecting to find both lying on the ground, dead or mortally wounded, but instead the youths stood unharmed with smoking revolvers in their hands and sheepish grins on their faces.

Pilfering Postman Convicted.

Indianapolis, Dec. 11.—Daniel B. Hunt of Hammond, charged with having stolen letters while acting as a letter carrier in that city, was found guilty by a jury in the federal court and was sentenced by Judge A. B. Anderson to serve four years at hard labor at the Fort Leavenworth federal prison.

NO REASON FOR IT.

There can be no just reason why any reader of this will continue to suffer the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance urinary disorders, the dangers of diabetes of any kidney ills when relief is so near at hand and the most positive proof given that they can be cured. Read what a Rushville citizen says:

L. B. Downey, 702 North Sexton street, Rushville, Ind., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a splendid kidney remedy and I can strongly recommend them. I had a terrible lameness in my back that prevented me from turning in bed or rising from a chair quickly. My Kidneys were also weak and disordered condition of the secretions existed. When I learned how positive Doan's Kidney Pills were in curing such difficulties I got a box at F. B. Johnson & Co's drug store. They soon banished the pain and lameness in my back and strengthened my kidneys."

Lesson XI.—Fourth Quarter, For Dec. 13, 1908.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, I Kings viii, 1-11. Memory Verses, 10, 11—Golden Text, Ps. cxxii, 1—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1908, by American Press Association.]

If we take the Christmas lesson next week instead of the story of Solomon's downfall, this will be our last Old Testament study for two years to come, as 1909 will be given to the Acts and the Epistles and 1910 to the gospel by Matthew. May the Lord therefore give us a special blessing in this meditation. The lesson verses assigned tell of the bringing of the ark of the covenant from the tent which David had pitched for it to the holy of holies in the temple which Solomon had just finished, and they brought the tabernacle and all its furniture from Gibeon, not for use, but to care for it somewhere in the temple (verse 4). All the temple furniture was new and grand and on a larger scale except the ark of the covenant, mentioned seven times in our lesson verses, and which contained at this time only the two tables of stone which Moses had made and on which God had written the Ten Commandments (verse 9), although at one time it seems to have contained the golden pot of manna and Aaron's rod that budded (Heb. ix, 4). They made no mistake this time in having it carried in any other way than that of God's appointment (verses 3, 4).

When the priests had come out from setting the ark in its place, then the glory of the Lord filled the house of the Lord, and no man could stand in His presence (verse 11). "The fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the house" (II Chron. vii, 1). At first God walked with man in Eden, then in a tent with Israel, at the time of our lesson in the temple, later in the body prepared for Him, even in Christ; now in the bodies of all believers, for we are His temple (I Cor. vi, 19, 20; II Cor. vi, 16). And the time is coming when the whole earth shall be filled with His glory and there shall be neither adversary nor evil occurrent (Num. xiv, 21; Isa. xl, 9; Hab. ii, 14; I Kings, v, 4). Then shall the holy city, the new Jerusalem, have descended from God out of heaven, of which the seer said, "I saw no temple therein, for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it; * * * the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof" (Rev. xxi, 22, 23). Then shall the temple of God be opened in heaven and there shall be seen in His temple the ark of His testament (Rev. xii, 19).

Very many are the interesting facts concerning the temple of Solomon and the lessons to be learned from it. It was built on Mount Moriah, on the place which David purchased from Araunah, the Jebusite, the former reminding us of the death and resurrection of Isaac and the latter of satisfaction by blood and the Lord's word, "It is enough" (Gen. xxii; II Sam. xxiv; II Chron. iii, 1). The house was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither, so that there was neither hammer nor ax nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was in building (I Kings vi, 7). The foundation, like that of the tabernacle, suggests atonement, for every board of the tabernacle stood on sockets of silver obtained from the ransom money of the people (Ex. xxx). As we saw recently in Isa. xxviii, 16; I Cor. iii, 11, there is no possible standing ground for any sinner but the foundation which God has provided, even the precious blood of Christ. When we are redeemed by that precious blood, then we are stones for the building, but here in the quarry where we were found we are being made ready for our places in the building, and the great Master Workman (Prov. viii, 30, R. V.) is too wise to spend too much or too little labor on any stone. Let us therefore trust Him for grace to say under all circumstances, "This is fitting me for my place in His building."

Within the building all was covered with gold and cedar. "There was no stone seen" (I Kings vi, 18). The Lord alone must be exalted. No flesh shall glory in His presence. Note for study the cherubim and palm trees carved on walls and doors, the pillars Jachin and Boaz in the porch of the temple, the two large olive wood cherubim covered with gold which in the holy of holies overshadowed the ark with its cherubim of pure gold, the 480 years from the exodus until Solomon began to build the temple, the seven years in which he was building it, the thirty-four years until it was first plundered, the 153,000 strangers who helped.

Study the prayer of dedication, each section of it, and notice I Kings viii, 43, 60, "That all the people of the earth may know thy name, may know that the Lord is God, to fear Thee as do Thy people Israel." Note especially verse 56, "There hath not failed one word of all His good promise which He promised by the hand of Moses, His servant." Compare Josh. xxiii, 14. Notice the word of the Lord to Solomon concerning his prayer, "I have hallowed this house which thou hast built to put My name there forever, and Mine eyes and Mine heart shall be there perpetually" (I Kings ix, 3). That being true of a mass of wood and stone, we who are living temples may surely appropriate the words and rejoice greatly in I Pet. v, 7.

THE PAROLE LAW UNDER QUESTION

Prosecutor at Goshen Says It Is Unconstitutional.

WILL APPEAL TO HIGH COURT

Action of Judge Dodge in Paroling a Convicted Man Is Denounced by the Prosecutor, Who Says He Will Carry the Matter to the Supreme Court and Test the Constitutionality of the Parole Law—Charge Is Made That

New Power of Judges Is Being Abused.

Goshen, Ind., Dec. 11.—Judge James S. Dodge, sitting on the Lagrange circuit bench, has paroled Douglas Stewart of Goshen, who was found guilty by a jury of attempted assault on a child. Prosecutor Lloyd L. Burris says he will appeal to the supreme court and test the constitutionality of the parole law.

Stewart, who is about forty-five years of age, is accused of attacking Mary Long, eleven years of age. Stewart's attorney, Ira Church, offered to plead guilty to assault and battery in the Elkhart circuit court, but the prosecuting attorney refused to consent, believing the penalty not consistent with the enormity of the crime. A change of venue was taken to the Lagrange circuit court, where the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

Prosecutor Burris says he believes the statute empowering judges of criminal courts to parole persons convicted of crime is unconstitutional. Mr. Burris further contends that, as the penalty for assault on a child under twelve years of age provides that there can be no suspension of sentence, there can be no suspension in cases of attempted assault where the victim is under twelve years of age. He says that unless the parole law is amended or revoked, it will be impossible to obtain conviction in any case during the two years preceding a judicial election. He says that the power of the parole is being used for purposes for which it was never intended, and in cases where the legislature never meant it to be applied.

MAY TAKE IT TO COURT

President Threatens Libel Suit in Connection With "Infamous Falsehoods."

Washington, Dec. 11.—"If they can be reached for criminal libel, I shall try to have them reached," said President Roosevelt in speaking about "those Americans who have been guilty of infamous falsehoods concerning the acquisition of the property and the construction of the [Panama] canal itself."

It was to the committee of one hundred of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterways association, headed by Governor Deneen of Illinois, who were received by the president in the east room of the White House, that he made this declaration. Governor Deneen had presented a copy of resolutions adopted by the association and made a few remarks to which the president replied as follows:

"I have felt, as the governor has so well put it, that no more important service could be rendered to this country than the building of the Panama canal between the Atlantic and the Pacific, and one thing I am proud of in connection with the building of that canal is that there has not been legitimate cause for the breath of scandal connected with any feature of the proceeding. We have cause to be ashamed of only one set of Americans in connection with the building of the canal, and that is of those Americans who have been guilty of infamous falsehoods concerning the acquisition of the property and the construction of the canal itself. If they can be reached for criminal libel, I shall try to have them reached. If not at any rate all the facts we know or ever have known are at the disposal of each and every one of you here, and of any one in congress or of all congress if they wish to see them."

"Unqualifiedly False."—Cromwell.

New York, Dec. 11.—In a 2,000-word statement regarding the charges of scandal in connection with the Panama canal deal, William Nelson Cromwell says: "I again denounce the statement wherever published or by whomsoever made, that there was a syndicate formed by American citizens to purchase the Panama canal and to sell it to the United States as absolutely and unqualifiedly false and untrue. * * * Neither I nor my law firm, nor any one connected with me ever owned, directly or indirectly, any share of stock in the new Panama Canal company, nor any of the obligations or securities of the old Panama Canal company, nor ever bought or sold any of the shares or securities of either one of said companies, nor were directly or indirectly interested in them. I am also positive that not a man in public life in America in or out of congress ever had the least pecuniary interest in the Panama canal. * * * The whole story of Americans or some American syndicate buying up the Panama canal securities at a low price or at any price and then turning them in upon liquidation at a profit is a fiction and a concoction. The money of the United States went to France and was distributed to the hundreds of thousands of foreign owners, none of whom, as far as I know, were Americans."

France Doesn't Reject Castro.

Bordeaux, France, Dec. 11.—President Castro of Venezuela was allowed to land on French soil when he arrived at Pauillac, thirty miles from Bordeaux, on the steamship Guadalupe. After a conference with a representative of the French government, President Castro came ashore and proceeded to Bordeaux in a special car. The announcement is made that the president will go to Paris, but he himself has not confirmed this and his future movements are in doubt. An agent of M. Pichon, the foreign minister, informed President Castro that he would be welcomed as a private citizen, and that as a chief of state he would be given every protection during his sojourn in France.

CO-OPERATION IS STRONGLY URGED

How This Depends Upon the Proper

Conservation and Development of the Natural Resources of the Country

Was Shown at One of the Most

Eventful Gatherings Ever Held in America—Report Drafted by Governors Prophetic of Far-Reaching Results

Growing Out of Notable Conference.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Prophetic of far-reaching results growing out of the joint conservation conference is a report drafted by more than thirty governors, approving the principle of co-operation among the states and between the states and the federal government in the conservation of the country's natural resources, and emphasizing the importance of such co-operation to the end that the prosperity and perpetuity of the nation may be assured. At the last day's conference between President Roosevelt's national conservation commission, leaders in commerce and industry, law-makers, governors, senators and representatives, in pledging their support to every phase of the conservation problem, furnished a climax to one of the most eventful gatherings ever held in this country. The conference heard addresses from Andrew Carnegie, Governors Woodruff of Connecticut, Ansel of South Carolina, Broward of Florida, Deneen of Illinois, former Governor Blanchard of Louisiana and other distinguished men.

The joint conference through a committee on resolutions, summed up its deliberations and gave hearty approval to the work and principles of the commission. The necessity for such laws as may be necessary to extend co-operation was strongly urged and the policy of separate disposal of the surface, timber and mineral rights remaining on public lands was commended. The conference approved the disposal of mineral rights by lease only and the disposal of timber rights only under conditions insuring proper cutting and logging.

The policies upon which particular emphasis was laid were: That all uses of the waters and all portions of each waterway shall be treated as interrelated; legislation for the development of waterways for navigation, water supply and other interstate uses, preferably by federal appropriation, otherwise by issue of bonds; more scientific research as to the extent of the nation's resources; the maintenance of a national conservation commission empowered to co-operate with state commissions.

A resolution was adopted providing for the appointment of a joint committee of six members of state commissions and three members of the national commission to prepare a plan for concerted action by all concerned with the conservation of natural resources.

ABSENTEE CONGRESSMEN

The House Starting Out Without the Semblance of a Quorum.

Washington, Dec. 11.—At no time Thursday was there even a semblance of a quorum in the house of representatives. Soon after convening the legislative appropriation bill was presented and several bills passed, among them being one authorizing the removal of the imposition of loss of citizenship upon deserters in the military and naval services. The balance of the day was taken up in discussing the bill to provide for the arbitrary investigation of difficulties between employers and employees.

The senate held a short session, during which an agreement was reached for taking up the omnibus claims bill next Monday with the understanding that it shall not interfere with the consideration of the postal savings bill or any other measure in which senators are especially interested.

Senator Lodge gave notice that he would on next Wednesday speak on the Brownsville affair, a bill to authorize the re-enlistment of soldiers of the Twenty-fifth regiment who were discharged without honor by the president, being made a special order for that day.

Auto Scorchers Sent to Jail.

New York, Dec. 11.—The most severe penalty prescribed for violation of the automobile speed law—thirty days in prison and a fine of $250 was the judgment of the special sessions court upon Felix L. Drott, a chauffeur. It was the third time he had been charged with reckless driving. For every dollar which the prisoner is unable to pay of the fine imposed a day in prison will be the penalty.

Acquittal in Rustin Case.

Omaha, Dec. 11.—After thirteen hours' deliberation the jury in the case of Charles E. Davis, charged with the murder, Sept. 2, of Dr. Frederick T. Rustin, agreed on a verdict of not guilty.

W.B. Reduse CORSETS

The Perfect Corset for Large Women

It places over-developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen, and absolutely reduces the hips from 1 to 5 inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

New W. B. Reduse No. 770 for large tall women. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides, also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

New W. B. Reduse No. 772 for large short women. Is the same as No. 770, except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white coutil. Hose supporters front and sides. Also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

Ask any dealer anywhere to show you the New W. B. "Hip-subsiding" models from $1.00 to $3.00 per pair.
